LE ROI CAROTTE.

A Grand Operatic Chorus of 40; a Corps d' Accessoir of 150; over 2000 Gorgeous Costumes, and 19 Magnificent Tableaux. SECOND MONTH.

The Herald says:

"Roi Carotte' is one of the most wonderful pieces ever presented in any theatre—full of interest and humor, while the scenery, like a kaleidoscope, ever shitting, keeps the spectator in a maze of astonishment and admiration. The Pompelian tableau cannot, indeed, be too highly praised. The old broken columns and heaps of debris quickly fade away under the influence of the magic lamp, and the city, as it was before its full, its houses gay with emblems, its streets alive with its varied most of pleasure seekers, rises up in full light of initiday before the audience. The 'monkey tableau' is also one of the oddest and strangest and most outrageously indicrous spectacles that can be imagined. There are few courts in the world of reality, even in gala days, which make so dazzling a show as that of king Carrol. It is impossible, indeed, to give a just conception of the varied mag
